a memo from the desk of

Deepak Moorjani

Saturday, October 9, 2021

Jennifer Compton
Sun Federal Credit Union
3341 Executive Parkway
Toledo, Ohio 43606-1316

subject: Frank Jacobs of Eastman & Smith

On the current litigation, opposing counsel (Procopio, Cory, Hargreaves & Savitch) continue to request that we dismiss the case. We are opposed, unless we obtain stipulations that require Seema Moorjani and Sunil Moorjani to provide adequate care to my mom. Given their history of poor behavior, Seema Moorjani and Sunil Moorjani need to have binding requirements.

I have updated the universe about Frank Jacobs of Eastman & Smith, since I feel that people should know about his behavior.

Lachman Chablani and my dad were high school classmates in India, and Lachman Chablani and Frank Jacobs were next-door neighbors for decades. Lachman Chablani and Nancy Chablani kept a distance from Frank Jacobs and Lynn Balshone Jacobs, because Lachman Chablani and Nancy Chablani were appropriately wary of their neighbors.

Sunil and I met Frank Jacobs when we were children, and we understood that Frank Jacobs is not a good man. Unfortunately, my mom is not a great judge of character.

Lynn Balshone Jacobs was an assistant prosecutor for Lucas County; in this role, she reported to Anthony Pizza (Note: Anthony Pizza was my mom's personal lawyer until 2007). Lynn Balshone Jacobs comes from a wealthy family in Columbus with a number of social connections, and she was subsequently placed on the Board of Commissioners on Grievances and Discipline in Columbus.

On January 08, 2019, you (bravely and correctly!) raised the Suicide Red Flag. On January 10, 2019, I notified Rosemarie Osowick of the Suicide Red Flag, and I cc'd Frank Jacobs' colleague (Louise Jackson of Eastman Smith) of the Suicide Red Flag. Subsequently, Frank Jacobs approached you to notarize my mom's legal documents, and I think Frank Jacobs' request demonstrates his willful misconduct.

In this update, I tried to minimize the use of your name; however, it was necessary to demonstrate Frank Jacobs' attempt to coverup his actions.

I hope you have a great Halloween. Please be sure to be creative with your costume.

cc: Karen Denune
cc: Lachman Chablani
cc: Martin Rowbottom
cc: Maureen Zdanovicz
cc: Sue Stolar
cc: Susan Rita Feierman Solomon

. . . . . .